All shipments are subject to the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions of Service (“UPS terms”) in effect on the date of shipment, which are available at www.ups.com/terms. Pursuant to the UPS Terms, UPS’s maximum liability for loss or damage to each domestic package or international shipment is limited to $100, unless the shipper declares a greater value in the declared value field of the UPS shipping system used and pays the applicable charge (in which case UPS’s maximum liability is the declared value). Special terms apply to some services and articles. Please review the UPS Terms for liability limits, exclusions from liability, maximum declared values, prohibited items, and other important terms of service. The shipper agrees that in the absence of a greater declared value, $100 value is a reasonable limitation under the circumstances of the transportation. Claims not timely made (generally noticed within sixty days and filed within nine months, but filed within sixty days for international shipments) are deemed waived and will not be paid. See the UPS Terms for details. Under no circumstances will UPS be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages.
